

POPE JOHN PAUL II MAJOR SEMINARY OKPUNO, AWKA

RULES OF ZERO TOLERANCE

Seminary is an institute of higher learning with its peculiarities, because it is mainly for the training of special set of people—candidates for Catholic Priesthood. Thus, there are rules which when a candidate goes against merit him instant expulsion from the seminary. These rules are so merciless that we deem it expedient to state them here in summary but clear terms for the candidates. They are as follows:

1. Breaking bounds; that is, leaving the seminary premises without due permission. Also included here is extension of break or holidays without the permission of the candidate's Ordinary or the seminary authority.
2. Theft of any form.
3. Examination malpractice.
4. Fighting.
5. Obvious act of sexual immorality.

NB' Dodging Mass, especially Sunday Mass, can also have grave consequences.
